

Flow chart of Council registration pathways

Start here

Do you wish to Register and practise in New Zealand or are you visiting New Zealand for a special purpose such as presenting or teaching Chinese medicine, undertaking post-graduate training, or research for a specified period?

I wish to Register and practise in New Zealand

I am just visiting

Welcome! You can apply via the 'Special Purpose Pathway.'

Do you hold any of the following qualifications from Council approved education institutions?

- a Bachelor of Health Science majoring in Acupuncture (Level 7) from the New Zealand School of Acupuncture and TCM or the New Zealand College of Chinese Medicine
- a 3-year Bachelor of Health Science majoring in Chinese herbal medicine (Level 7) from the New Zealand College of Chinese Medicine
- a 4-year Bachelor of Health Science in Acupuncture and Chinese Herbal Medicine (level 7) from the New Zealand College of Chinese Medicine
- a Graduate Diploma in Health Science (Chinese Herbal Medicine) (level 7) from the New Zealand School of Acupuncture and TCM
- a 2-year Diploma in Tuina (level 7) from the New Zealand College of Chinese Medicine
- a Graduate Certificate in Health Sciences (Tuina Massage Therapy) (level 7) from the New Zealand School of Acupuncture and TCM
- a Master of Chinese Medicine from the New Zealand College of Chinese Medicine.

Are you a currently registered member of AcNZ, NZASA, NZCMAS or NZRTCMP?

Yes

No

Great! You can apply via the 'Grand-parenting Pathway.'

Are you currently practising Chinese medicine in New Zealand and have you practised for a minimum of three years cumulatively within the last five years?

Yes

No

Great! You can apply via the 'Grand-parenting Pathway.'

